officers present: Seneschal Jasper of Hartshorn-dale, MOAS & Webminister Helena Hrolfsdottir, Baron Dunstan, Baroness Cynthia, Exchequer Eleanor, MOL Edward Perry

Officer Reports

Seneschal- successful defending the gate was held

Exchequer- defending the gate had a net of about $2200; several checks undeposited still, including the donation to the Izaak Walton League and the NMR fee to incorporate; quarterly report is in a holding pattern until kingdom exchequer can answer questions

MOAS- May 5th Dance, May 26th leather pouch class, June 2nd pennsic prep, maybe dance June 23rd

what A&S classes do we want to see in the fall? more naalbinding, astrolabes?, more kumihimo, stone age stonemasonry equipment

Webminister- we have a website

MOL- lots of MOLing happening

Chatelaine- not present

Old Business:

Defending the Gate

- profit as reported above
- 237 attendees
- everything went well, positive feedback received
- hospitality drinks set up was well received, ran out of cocoa mix and people liked having tea
- marshallate generally pleased with set up- thrown weapons might want to use a different range, next year have armored fighters load the gate after fighting ends in the uhaul
- activities well attended
- note for next year to have gate guard position staffed all day in shifts
- parking went much better than last year
- looking to have exchequer run reservations & troll next year
- looking for an autocrat for next year

New Business:

- Canton Storage:
 - price of rental parking spot increased in February and we will owe in July to clear out our year of storage
 - after July we need to relocate the storage locker as our contract with the site will not be renewed
 - mold abatement done last year seems to be doing well

- Penelope suggest renting a regular storage locker and selling the shipping container
- Elaine suggested pricing storage unit & potential parking spaces
- how big is a similar size storage unit? the container is 8' w x 20' l x 8' h
- cost to move the unit includes emptying it, uhaul to move the stuff and hiring the shipping company to move the unit
- the items in the unit need inventoried
- Jasper & Ellie will research storage options
- Proposal: host a university - possibly fall, possibly at Izaak Walton League; will be contacting the university & kingdom event bid coordinators
 - <https://university.atlantia.sca.org/host.php>
 - <https://atlantia.sca.org/event-resources/>
 - continuing to look into options
- Jasper proposes to look for sales for a lava heater for the canton
- tentative storage locker moving and inventory on June 27-28
